"Like the great Reformation of the sixteenth century, the advent movement appeared in different countries of Christendom at the same time. In both Europe and America men of faith and prayer were led to the study of the prophecies, and, tracing down the inspired record, they saw convincing evidence that the end of all things was at hand. In different lands there were isolated bodies of Christians who, solely by the study of the Scriptures, arrived at the belief that the Saviour's advent was near" (The Great Controversy, p. 357).

keytext

"There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. There are different kinds of working, but the same God works all of them in all men."

(1 Corinthians 12:4-6, NIV)

what do you think?

Read the following definitions of “servanthood” and “stewardship.” Then decide if you agree or disagree. Explain why.

Servanthood is all about our heart toward God and our attitude toward ministry. According to 1 Corinthians 13:1-3, using our spiritual gifts without love accomplishes nothing. Authentic devotion to serving, honoring, and worshipping Christ is essential for effective ministry.

Stewardship has to do with accountability. Once we identify and grow in our understanding of our spiritual gifts, we must be responsible in the way we use them. First Corinthians 12:1 reminds us that it is our duty to identify what our spiritual gifts are because we will be held accountable for how we use them (1 Peter 4:10; Matthew 25:14-30).

did you know?

Each of us is truly unique. Did you know that each of us has 100 trillion cells in our body? And for each of those cells, there is a DNA strand that holds 6 gigabytes of memory. So, each of us has the potential to house 600 trillion gigabytes of memory! Amazing! Also, DNA molecules can combine in an infinite number of ways. The number is 10 to the 2,400,000,000th power. There is no one like you! God made you special.

You have a God-given personal style and ministry passion. Understanding your unique gifts and style will enable you to thrive in your relationship with God and in your ministry.

INTO THE STORY

“There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. There are different kinds of working, but the same God works all of them in all men.

many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ. For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink.”

“Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it. And in the church God has appointed first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then workers of miracles, also those having gifts of healing, those able to help others, those with gifts of administration, and those speaking in different kinds of tongues.”

(1 Corinthians 12:4-13, 27, 28, NIV)

“Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. To one there is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom, to another the message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues. All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, and he gives them to each one, just as he determines.

“The body is a unit, though it is made up of

OUT OF THE STORY

Circle the gifts that Paul lists in the passages above. Who gives these gifts? Which one is the best and/or most important? Reinforce your answer with biblical texts.

Find definitions/descriptions for the following spiritual gifts:

- Wisdom

- Knowledge

- Faith

- Healing

- Discernment (distinguishing between spirits)

Who is the minister at your church? Reread 1 Corinthians 12:7. What would Paul say about your answer?

What might some of your spiritual gifts be? If you don't know, how can you find out?

What do you think the church would look like if everyone lived out their spiritual giftedness?

punch lines

"Give, and you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full—pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap. The amount you give will determine the amount you get back" (Luke 6:38, NLT).

"So since we find ourselves fashioned into all these excellently formed and marvelously functioning parts in Christ's body, let's just go ahead and be what we were made to be, without enviously or pridefully comparing ourselves with each other, or trying to be something we aren't" (Romans 12:5, 6, Message).

"Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms" (1 Peter 4:10, NIV).

"You shaped me first inside, then out; you formed me in my mother's womb" (Psalm 139:13, Message).

"Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents. For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him" (Matthew 25:28, 29, NIV).

"What you are is God's gift to you; what you do with yourself is your gift to God."—Danish proverb.

"You are the church—Christ's body—and your presence in the church makes a difference. When you begin to serve faithfully according to God's specific will for your life, you will experience personal fruitfulness and fulfillment."—Bruce Bugbee, Discover Your Spiritual Gifts the Network Way.

Sabbath

Complete the What Do You Think? activity. The words “servanthood” and “stewardship” are misunderstood by many people. For some, servanthood means to allow others to dictate how we live our lives. And for others, stewardship refers only to money.

How were the definitions for servanthood and stewardship similar to your current understanding? How were they different? How would you rewrite the definitions?

Servanthood: _____

Stewardship: _____

Sunday

Read the Into the Story section of this week’s lesson, and answer the Out of the Story questions. The context in which the apostle was writing was that there were people in the church who thought that their spiritual gifts were superior to others’ gifts. They had become proud. That’s one reason he stressed love in 1 Corinthians 13. Without love, our gifts won’t make an eternal difference.

But what do you do if you don’t like the gifts you have? Or it seems as if everyone else has better ones? If we use our gifts out of a heart of love, can all giftedness—small or large—make a difference? Explain.

Monday

Read through the Key Text for this week. It reveals a pattern to us:

Different gifts	Same Spirit
Different service	Same Lord
Different working	Same God

What does this tell us about the Spirit? About Jesus? About God?

Tuesday

Read this week’s Flashlight quotation. Ellen White tells us that Christians in different countries, who had no contact with each other, were coming to the same conclusions about Christ’s second coming. Why? Because they were all studying the same book—God’s Word—and were being led by the same Spirit.

At different times, in different places, God imparts the wisdom necessary for that situation. Discernment is one of the spiritual gifts that God promises to give. Do some research to determine what it means to have the spiritual gift of discernment. How can that gift be used to serve others?

Wednesday

Read this week’s Punch Lines. There are several themes that you will find throughout these Scripture texts. Match the text with the theme.

Matthew 25:28, 29	Givers receive more than they give
Luke 6:38	Serving grace
Psalms 139:13	I’ve got to be me
1 Peter 4:10	God’s math sure is different than my math homework
Romans 12:5, 6	God knew me before I knew me

Thursday

How would an understanding of your spiritual gifts influence your future—your choice of career, spouse, ministry?

Friday

What God-given ability or personal experience can I offer to my community? In what ways can I see myself passionately serving others—and loving it?
